

When the server receives email addressed to accounts that don't exist, it must decide what to do with those messages. The control panel provides three options:

• Forward the message to a valid email address.

To enable Catch-All, go to the Email Accounts section \rightarrow click Edit or Add new email account \rightarrow select Catch-All for this address. More details are available in the modal with the exact settings.